Come One, Come All: What's Happening at Triton College this Semester?

River Grove, Ill. – As always, Triton College aims to engage members of our communities by offering on-campus events that will suit a variety of interests. We look forward to seeing you on campus soon!

Here is a list of events happening at Triton this semester that are open to the community (dates and times subject to change).

Triton College Alumni Softball Game

Saturday, Sept. 8, 11 a.m.-3 p.m., First Pitch at Noon

East Campus Athletic Complex Softball Field

Members of past and present Triton College softball teams will come together to catch up on old times, and see if they've still 'got it' during the third annual alumni softball game. The event is open to the public and free to attend. Refreshments will be served for players and coaches only.

Heartland Blood Drive

Wednesday, Sept. 12, 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Outside of the south end of the Triton College Student Center Cafeteria

Hop on the Heartland Bus to donate blood during the Heartland Blood Drive. A single blood donation can save the lives of up to three people. Those wishing to donate blood should bring a valid ID, such as a driver's license/state ID/student ID or passport. Prior to donating blood, it's important to eat a good meal and drink plenty of water. For more information, visit www.heartlandbc.org.

Lunch with TED: Plastic, the Blessing or the Bane?

Monday, Sept. 17, Noon

Fridays and Saturdays, 7:30 p.m., Sundays, 2 p.m.

Cox Auditorium, Fine Arts Building, Room J-108

$10 General Admission/$5 Students, Faculty, Staff and Seniors

Edgar Lee Masters' classic poem cycle weaves together individual stories of the citizens of a fictional Illinois town to tell a mosaic tale of the town itself. The heartbreak, joy, discontentment and pride of the citizens find vibrant reimagined life in this new adaptation.

Fall Family Fun Fest

Saturday, Sept. 29, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Triton's Botanical Gardens

The fun-filled event includes games, activities and exhibits designed for adults and children of all ages. Check out the pumpkin patch and straw maze, get creative at the noodle necklace and mask-making stations, and show off your skills with the jumbo ring toss, bucket toss and youth obstacle course. You can also satisfy your sweet tooth at the sugar cookie decorating station. The event is free to attend and open to the entire community. For more information, visit www.triton.edu/fallfest.

Free Robotics for Youth Program

Saturday, Oct. 20, Noon-3 p.m. A

Building, Library, Room A-321

All girls and boys are invited to Triton College as robots take over the campus. Expert builders from Triton's Engineering Technology Department will be on hand to help attendees build a working Lego robot that will move in ways kids never imagined it could. Families are encouraged to arrive at noon to ensure they have a robot to work on. All materials are provided free of charge. While kids are building their robots, other family members can learn more about Mechatronics (robotics), one of Triton's newest programs. No registration is required, but space is limited and will be based on first-come, first served. For more information, call (708) 456-0300, Ext. 3698.
